'Relaxed' Summer Format

What is a 'relaxed' summer format?

Well, it's not relaxed music! While reflecting the liturgy, our music should have as much pep and energy as ever.

In a nutshell, a relaxed format is...

- practices are optional
- Sing the processional, offertory, communion and recessional. Everything else is optional.
- While we do not have a formal dress code, clothing should be appropriate.
- Instruments and full choirs will not always be available. Do what you can. You are the best qualified to do it!

Summer song suggestions are available in the planning section on the web.
